Welcome to Our Adult Education Catalog
Adult Community Learning Center ACLC

ERACE has developed innovative educational and career programs for all community members. If you want to advance your academic goals, your Adult Community Learning Center is available today! ERACE ACLC provides integrated academic software, education monitoring and career counseling services for community members of Branford, Clinton, Guilford, Madison and North Branford. We welcome your inquiries; please visit our website at www.erace-adulted.org.

Academic classes offer opportunities—a second or even third chance to gain a high school diploma. English as a Second Language classes draw many who need improvement with the English language to better assimilate at work and in daily life.

We have over 200 classes for enrichment, and many are new offerings. From Business to Bus trips; Computers to Crochet; Dance to Finance; French to Mandarin; Mythology to Spirituality; Tae Kwon Do to Technology; and Writing to Yoga. We have a course for you! Compete course descriptions are found online: www.erace-adulted.org.

Transitions

This college and training readiness program is intended for our GED (General Educational Development) NEDP (National External Diploma Program) and High School Credit Diploma Program students. Coursework helps students achieve their educational and career goals; offers educational, academic and career counseling and prepares them for entrance into post secondary and occupational training.

National External Diploma Program (NEDP)

NEDP is a nationally- and state-recognized, free, confidential high school diploma program for mature, highly motivated adults who have acquired their academic skills through life and work experience. Participants in this program must demonstrate their academic skills through the successful completion of a series of assignments. If you are a mature adult who would like to earn a Branford Adult High School diploma by working independently, then NEDP is the right program for you! NEDP is flexible and offers times that can accommodate most busy schedules. For more information about NEDP, please visit www.nedp.org. To register, please call 203.488.5693.

Mandatory Orientation for New NEDP Students
Monday, August 29 from 5:00-8:00PM at Branford High School.
Please call 203.488.5693 to register.

From the Director

With the beginning of a new year, we take time to reflect on the year just ending. Did you reach your goals? Have you made your education a priority?

When you plan for your future, many obstacles can get in your path and slow you down. We offer a lifelong path to learning, beginning with an adult education high school diploma. We offer three separate programs: CDP (Credit Diploma Program), NEDP (National External Diploma Program), and the GED(R) (General Education Development) to meet your education goals.

Our ESL (for English learners) programs are offered in three towns and offer dedicated programs at various times during the day.

Enrichment programs are offered in arts and crafts, personal development and technology, reading and writing and for business and investment and languages. We have so many enrichment offerings to choose from.

We are here to help your lifelong learning experiences thrive.
